DECLARATION OF GUY E. BEARDSLEY

I, Guy E. Beardsley, declare as follows:

I am employed by Clark & Elbing LLP as a Practice Systems Specialist. One of my responsibilities in this position is to ensure the delivery of firm mail to the United States Postal Service.

The Clark & Elbing LLP mailroom procedures that I and all other employees follow require that all mail to be taken to the Post Office be left in a specially designated box in the mailroom. At or after the close of business each day, I or another designated employee checks the box for mail and delivers it by hand to an employee of the United States Postal Service's General Mail Facility on Dorchester Avenue in Boston.

All statements made herein of my own knowledge are true and all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true; and further these statements were made with the knowledge that willful false statements and the like so made are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under Section 1001 of Title 18 of the United States Code and that such willful false statements may jeopardize the validity of the application or any patents issued thereon.

Respectfully submitted,
